Stephen A. Gebhardt, Vice President, MoneyLine Lending, likes to say that he and his staff specialize in “saving people money”. “We save people money by reducing the interest rates on their mortgages, reducing monthly mortgage payments, and restructuring debt,” says Gebhardt smiling. “We assist them in consolidating high-interest, unsecured debt to reduce their monthly payments.” Gebhardt often talks about the joys of home ownership, “There are so many advantages to owning your own home, both social and financial benefits, not to mention the great feeling of ‘going home to your own home.’” Whether seeking a new mortgage or refinancing an existing one, MoneyLine Lending solves the mortgage matrix for its clients. MoneyLine Lending also welcomes those who need Veterans Administration loans and commercial loans. “We are most happy when our clients are satisfied,” beams Gebhardt, “and we have a lot of satisfied customers! We are very hands-on with first time home buyers, helping them through the entire process. That is why we say, ‘Your Satisfaction...Is Our Success’ because we really mean it. Calling MoneyLine Lending is one of the wisest decisions that a person can make.” Established in 2006, MoneyLine Lending has been successful since the beginning, “even through the economic downturns,” adds Gebhardt proudly. He attributes this success to his expert staff. “We make our clients’ experience exceptional,” he says. Gebhardt stays updated on current financial regulations to give his clients the best advantages. MoneyLine Lending, located in Camp Hill, draws most of its business from Central PA, but also attracts customers from other state counties. Giving back to the community is one of MoneyLine Lending’s strong beliefs, “Our staff and our customers live here, and we want to support our local communities,” states Gebhardt. MoneyLine Lending supports the MS Society Walks, the Big 33 Cheerleaders, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Central Pennsylvania Blood Bank, and local sports teams and events to name a few. In addition, MoneyLine Lending is a member of the Mechanicsburg Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Harrisburg Association of Realtors. One of Gebhardt’s favorite quotes is, “If you want to make good use of your time, you’ve got to know what’s most important and then give it all you’ve got,” Lee Iacocca: Philanthropist, former Chrysler CEO, former Ford President. Originally from Altoona, Gebhardt earned his university degree from Temple, and now lives with his wife and four children in Mechanicsburg.
